The Daily Press.

In our issue of 29th ult., we inserted a letter from one of the Hong Kong Volunteers telling tales out of school. We think the writer was very much mistaken in having written such a letter, and we are sorry to find that he was so mistaken. We desire to express our regret for our mistake, and to apologise to the Volunteer for our mistake. We are sorry to find that he was so mistaken, and we are sorry to find that he was so mistaken.

We have received a letter from another member of the Volunteer, and we are sorry to find that he was so mistaken. We are sorry to find that he was so mistaken, and we are sorry to find that he was so mistaken.
